Hebrews: Priests • Erik Rasmussen

Hebrews 4:14-16

Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God’s throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

The book of Hebrews was written to help the Jews transition from their heritage and culture and into the reality of Jesus Christ. This was no small feat and at the time, Hebrews would have been a highly controversial letter amongst the Hebrew people. But how do we understand it today? And what significance does it have for our lives especially within the context of the Levitical Priesthood?
